

BRICS and Climate Change: Ethiopia and Iran

Co-hosted by the Centre for Gender and Africa Studies, Miranda House, Delhi University, and the South African BRICS Think Tank (SABTT)

Register in advance for this meeting:

2 April 2026

12:00
(SA time)

13:00
(Ethopian time)

13:30
(Iranian time)

PRESENTERS

Sanet Solomon - is a Lecturer in the Department of Political Studies and Governance at the University of the Free State. A double cum laude graduate and member of the International Golden Key Honour Society, she is an internationally published scholar and serves as a peer reviewer for prestigious journals, including Politikon and Local Government Studies (Taylor & Francis), Insight on Africa and International Studies (Sage), and Politeia (UNISA Press). Her expertise as a political analyst has featured on global platforms such as Al Jazeera, BBC News, eNCA, Newzroom Afrika, SABC News, PowerFM, and The Citizen. She held a Council position with the South African Association of Political Studies (SAAPS, 2023–2025) and is an active member of the International Political Science Association (IPSA) and British International Studies Association (BISA).

Dr. Sushmita Rajwar - is currently working as Associate Professor, Centre for African Studies, SIS, JNU. She has formerly worked as Associate Professor, Department of Politics & Governance, Central University of Kashmir and as Assistant Professor at Department of Political Science, Maharaja Agrasen College, University of Delhi. She has completed her Ph.D from Centre for African Studies, School of International Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi. The topic of her Ph.D was "Disputed Boundary: Impact on Displaced People along Orange River in South Africa". Her research interests include- India-Africa relations, Indian Diaspora in Africa, Maritime Security, China in Africa and Border disputes in African countries. She has been an active member of Organisation for Diaspora Initiatives (ODI) and African Studies Association (ASA) India, New Delhi. Dr. Rajwar has published articles in SCOPUS indexed journals on topics covering Indian Diaspora in Africa, India-Mozambique Relations, Indian Diaspora in Mozambique, Disputed boundary between South Africa and Namibia, India-China in Africa, Challenges facing China in Zambia and many more.

T: +27 51 401 3121 | E: CGAS@ufs.ac.za | www.ufs.ac.za

Inspiring excellence, transforming lives
through quality,
impact, and care.

South African
BRICS Think Tank

